

Prospects for the European Union

Borderless Europe?

Dear participant,

We sincerely welcome you to join the 'Prospects for the European Union: Borderless Europe?' conference. Please find the following information concerning the conference programme and other important details. The knowledge, expertise and active engagement that the presenters will be sharing will greatly contribute to the depth and breadth of this important event. We hope the information below will assist you with the final preparation and orientation.

Date and venue

The conference will be held between 25–26 October 2013 in Budapest at Kodolányi János University of Applied Sciences, Budapest Campus (Budapest, Frangepán utca 50–56) 4th floor, room 401.

Registration & participation guidelines

The registration will begin at 8:00 in the morning of Friday 25 October. Registration fees are required to be paid during the registration in case of selecting payment in cash. Conference material and name tag will be given to you at the registration. It is suggested to arrive in time in order to follow the scheduled opening session at 9:00.

We request our speakers to bring 2 copies of full paper OR hand-out printed. Hard copies of the papers or hand-outs can be found later at the information desk where you can borrow them to read during the programme. Please read and return the paper you have selected as promptly as possible to make them available to all participants.

We are working to a very tight schedule which means punctuality is extremely important. We expect you to be on time so that sessions can start promptly and enough time is left for discussion.

Conference agenda & information

The registration fee of the 'Prospects for the European Union: Borderless Europe?' conference is 25 euro for listeners and 45 euro for speakers. Registration fee includes one copy of conference materials and unlimited tea/coffee and refreshments during the 2 days of conference (lunch is not included). The price does not include public transport and accommodation fees.

The event will last for two days and is divided into sessions (see the programme document). Keynote speakers will give 35-minutes lectures followed by 10-minutes Q&A. Guest speakers will get maximum 20 minutes for presentation. Each session contains 20 minutes Q&A and discussion.

The conference will be opened by the moderator who will introduce the speakers on stage. Speakers will be presenting on stage sequentially.

You are requested to arrive at the conference room 20 minutes before the starting time of your presentation, in order to the event not to be delayed.

The conference language is English. No translation services will be available.

Participants are expected to dress smart casual during the programme.

Presentation

Due to the number of speakers and conference schedule Guest Speakers are required to hold their presentation within a 20-minutes timeframe.

PowerPoint and Prezi presentation software can be used.

Paper deadline

Final deadline for sending of full papers: 31 December 2013. NOTE: Abstracts or hand-outs will be published in the Conference Book (online pdf and DVD) in case of lack of full papers.
