

EEOB 14|12|18

Erasmus+

BUDAPEST Kodolányi University

Fundacja Dobra Wola

EASTERN EUROPE OPEN BOUNDARIES

INTERNATIONAL FORUM – BUDAPEST | 14.12.2018

CALL FOR PARTICIPANTS

Aimed at contributing the enhancement of the quality of youth work in the Eastern European countries, Eastern Europe Open Boundaries international forum comprise lectures, a workshop and presentations of practical conceptual materials in the specific field of racism and violent behaviours and antidemocratic tendencies among youth.

PROGRAMME

09:30 – Registration

10:00 – Opening of the Programme

10:15 – Youth work in Europe

- Gyöngyvér Hervainé Szabó (Vice-Rector of Kodolányi János University) – Pedagogy for global citizenship in KJU International Education
- Tamás Domokos (CEO of ECHO Survey Holding) – Hungarian Youth in Central Europe
- Éva Horváti (International Director at Kodolányi János University) – The pedagogical challenges of intercultural coexistence and the models of integration of local students in the international student office
- Youth work in Hungary (presented by the representative of the government)

11:45 – Break

12:15 – Eastern Europe Open Boundaries

- Presentation of the EEOB project (AGJF Sachsen)
- Introduction of partner organisations: AGJF Sachsen (DE), A.D.E.L. (SK), Walk Together Association (BG), RightChallenge (PT), Dobra Wola (PL), Active Youth Association (LT) and the Institute for Cultural Relations Policy (HU).
- Qualification concept for youth workers for the prevention of racism, homophobia and other refusals and the inclusive measures for refugees and migrants
- Conceptual materials for actions and processes for the individual design of activities to promote democratic understanding, inclusive attitudes and dismantling of racism, violent radicalism and general discrimination

14:30 – Workshop and NGO partnership-building

15:00 – Reception

FURTHER INFORMATION AND APPLICATION

Applications are accepted online: <http://culturalrelations.org/portfolio/eob-forum>

VENUE

KODOLÁNYI JÁNOS UNIVERSITY, FRANGEPÁN U. 50-56, 1139 BUDAPEST, HUNGARY | ROOM 401